A white vinyl fence is our calling card from the road. Beyond this, we are actively planting and maintaining our vineyards including Chardonnay, Merlot, and Viognier grapes. There are also hundreds of apple, peach, pear and plum trees that it is hoped will be available for picking. The productive land is shared with several livestock including cows and buffalo. www.cassinelliwinery.com

7) Cedar Run Farm (Saturday only)

Lew and Marilyn Dodd (410)556-6728
320 John Powell Road, Sudlersville, MD 21668
In operation for 38 years, they are the second generation to live and farm here since its purchase 58 years ago. Through genealogical study we have found that the Dodd Family has been farming in Queen Anne's County since the 18th Century (Revolutionary War). Tradition is carried on by raising their our own beef, pork and chickens naturally. Antibiotics are not used in the feed, steroids or growth promotants of any kind. The cattle graze on pasture year round and are supplemented with hay and sweet corn silage during the winter. The hogs are fed produce in season, forage, ground corn, soybeans and minerals for healthy development. The chickens are free range. The Dodds believe that with all the health concerns in recent years that they can provide a healthy alternative to the meats & eggs found elsewhere. www.cedarruncattle.com
