Location: Chesapeake Heritage Center (Visitors Center)

Action Items:

Who	What	When
Paul	Share with Nancy information on how QAC might achieve Bike Friendly Community designation and how it might benefit QAC in future fundraising/grants.	Prior to Next Meeting
	Join PRAB board and attend 2/25 meeting representing BPAC priorities	Ongoing
Nancy	Share (via email) Bike to Work Awareness event possible in May with BPAC members.	Prior to next meeting
Bob	Update BPAC website with minutes	ASAP
Leslie	Solicit Nancy's input on Rotary Club "Great Outdoors Guide" and insure maps are correct.	Prior to Next Meeting

Items Discussed or Shared:

- 1) Discussed meeting with Gregg Todd (on 12/13/19, Paul, Bob and Nancy attended) regarding how BPAC can better communicate its recommendations and input to the Commissioners. Todd suggested a BPAC member should also be a member of the PRAB (Parks Recreation Advisory Board) which would thereby improve connectivity. PRAB meets monthly and has a designated liaison commissioner assigned who attends all meetings. Paul has submitted his name for PRAB board membership. First meeting is 2/25 (meets every third Monday of the month). Meetings are open and BPAC members can also attend if desired.
- 2) Reviewed BPAC 2018 Connectivity and Safety Recommendations with focus on a) Matapeake School complex connectivity to Ellendale, b) Need for Pier One road pedestrian crossing Rt 8, c) Safety chevrons/road markings from new Long Point Park trail terminus along Sadler/Chester River Beach Road to Chester River Beach Community and d) Potential long term Rt 50 Pedestrian crossing.
- 3) Cross Island trail extension to Long Point Park is under construction
