(j) Enforcement actions.

(1) Subject to paragraph (3) of this subsection, an animal control officer may initiate a complaint or other form of enforcement of this title or State law.

(2) Before an animal control officer files a complaint in a court of competent jurisdiction, the animal control officer shall have probable cause to believe that a violation of this title or State law has taken place.

(k) Access to private property.

An animal control officer may enter upon private property to check compliance with orders of the Animal Control Commission and to investigate any observed or reported violations of this title. This access is limited to unenclosed places and structures which are open and the interior of which is easily visible to the animal control officer.

9-209. Animal Control Center.

(a) Stray and unwanted animals.

(1) The Animal Control Center shall receive stray and unwanted animals regardless of their medical condition.

(2) Animals that have a confirmed disease which may cause death or serious illness to other animals confined at the Center may be immediately euthanized.

(3) The Animal Control Center shall make a prompt and reasonable effort to locate and notify owners of stray animals.

(b) Return of identified animals.

The Animal Control Center shall ascertain the identity of the owner of an impounded animal, and as a precondition of release, require the payment of all charges for the care, impoundment, board, veterinary treatment, and any unpaid license fees from the animal's owner.

(c) Animal adoption.

The Animal Control Center shall place for adoption unredeemed or unwanted animals in accordance with the regulations established under this title and State law.

(d) Humane treatment.

The Animal Control Center shall provide humane treatment of all animals under its care.

(e) Same – Standards of care.

The Animal Control Center shall maintain and adhere to comprehensive procedures prescribing standards for the humane operation of the Center, including standards for the housing, feeding, care, veterinary treatment, adoption, and euthanasia of animals in the facility pursuant to this title and State law.

(f) Same – Veterinary care.

(1) The Animal Control Center shall provide for necessary and appropriate veterinary care of injured or sick animals in the custody of the County.

(2) Veterinary care of injured or sick animals may be rendered without the consent of the owner.

(1) Queen Anne's County employees and the Animal Control Center staff and its agents are not liable for acts committed or omitted in rendering care under this subsection.

(g) Posting of charges.

The Animal Control Center shall post, in a conspicuous place, a schedule of charges for the housing, care, treatment, adoption, and redemption of animals that come into the custody of the Center.

(h) Public information programs.

(1) The Animal Control Center shall conduct public information programs on this title, responsible pet ownership, adoption, spaying and neutering, health care, and other programs as instructed by the Director.

(2) The Animal Control Center may provide information to the humane society for a pet of the week program to include any animal that is eligible for adoption. The humane society may in turn provide this information to the local newspaper.

(i) Records.

(1) The Animal Control Center shall keep records of impoundments, veterinary treatment, disposition of animals, and other activities for a period of three years after such records are initiated.

(2) Animal records shall be complete and accurate as to the breed, sex, color, condition, how, when, and where the animal was obtained, and any identification the animal may have been wearing.

(j) Unwanted animals.

The Animal Control Center shall humanely euthanize unredeemed and unwanted animals in accordance with this title and State law.

Subtitle 3. Licensing and Animal Care

9-301. Dog Licensing.

(a) License required.

(1) A person may not own, keep, or harbor a dog four months old or older without a current Queen Anne's County license.

(2) The license shall expire on the last day of December of each year.

(b) Same – Multiple dog license.

A person that owns, keeps, or harbors five or more dogs over the age of four months shall maintain a valid multiple dog license.

(c) Place of licensure.

Licenses shall be sold through the Department of Animal Control, any licensed veterinarian in Queen Anne's County, or any location designated by the Director.

(d) Rabies certificate.

Before a license shall be issued, the owner or custodian shall produce a valid rabies certificate issued by a licensed veterinarian proving that the dog is currently vaccinated against rabies.

(e) License

A license shall include the following:

- (1) date of issuance;
- (2) date of expiration;
- (3) owner's name, address, and home and work telephone numbers;
- (4) name, breed, color, and sex of the dog;
- (5) rabies vaccination and expiration date;
- (6) rabies tag number; and
- (7) name of the issuing party.

(f) Same – tag.

A license tag shall be issued with the license certificate. The tag shall be worn by the dog at all times, except when participating in a competition where such displays are prohibited, when hunting, or while undergoing organized training. The dog tag shall be worn on a collar or harness around the dog's neck or body and be easily visible.

(g) Inspections.

The license certificate shall be made available for inspection, upon request, by an animal control officer, environmental health officer, or any law enforcement officer.

(h) License replacement.

If a license tag is lost, the owner may obtain a duplicate license.

(i) Change in dog ownership.

If the ownership of a dog changes, the new owner may obtain a transfer license if the dog has a valid Queen Anne's County license at the time of transfer of ownership.

(j) Change in dog ownership.

If the ownership of a dog changes, the new owner may obtain a transfer license if the dog has a valid Queen Anne's County license at the time of transfer of ownership.

(k) License fee exceptions.

(1) An owner of a certified seeing eye dog, hearing dog, or other certified dog that is trained to assist the physically impaired is not required to pay the annual fee but shall obtain and display a County dog license.

(2) The owner of a governmental police dog is not required to pay the annual fee but shall obtain a County dog license. A police dog is exempt from the requirement that the County dog license must be displayed.

(l) License exceptions.

(1) An animal shelter operated by a chartered humane society or the Department of Animal Control shall be exempt from licensing requirements.

(2) Veterinary hospitals or clinics where dogs are hospitalized and medical research facilities are exempt from license requirements under this section, but such establishments must register their operation with the Department of Animal Control.

(3) Veterinary hospitals that board or sell animals shall comply with the requirements of §§ 9-302 and 9-303 of this title.

9-302. Commercial animal establishments – Licensing.

(a) Scope of section.

(2) Written application for a commercial animal establishment/kennel license shall be made to the Department of Animal Control

(3) License applications must be accompanied by the license fee and written verification from Queen Anne's County Planning and Zoning that the applicant complies with applicable zoning and use regulations.

(c) Zoological parks accepted.

A zoological park owned and operated by any government agency is not required to obtain a license.

(d) Licensing procedure.

(1) The Department of Animal Control shall inspect the facility prior to issuing or renewing the license.

(2) An annual commercial animal establishment/kennel license shall be issued on successful completion of an inspection and payment of the applicable fee.

(e) License display.

A commercial animal establishment/kennel license shall be displayed in a conspicuous place on the premises of the establishment.

(f) License renewal.

(1) The license period shall run for one year from the date of issuance.

(2) Renewal applications for licenses shall be made 30 day prior to expiration of the license.

(g) License transfer.

If there is a change in ownership of a commercial animal establishment or commercial kennel/cattery, the new owner may have the current license transferred to their name on payment of a transfer fee and completion of a successful inspection by the Department of Animal Control.

(h) Individual facilities.

Every facility subject to this title shall be considered a separate enterprise requiring an individual license.

9-303. Same – Regulation.

(a) Scope of section.

This section does not apply to animal shelters operated by a chartered humane society or the Department of Animal Control.

(b) Pet sales.

(1) All dogs and cats offered for resale must have a current health certificate issued by a Maryland licensed veterinarian dated within the last three months prior to resale.

(2) An animal under veterinarian treatment may not be offered for sale without being released by the veterinarian.

(c) Same – Defective or ill animals.

An owner or employee of a commercial animal establishment or commercial kennel/cattery who knows of or should have known of any animal defect or illness shall make a purchaser aware of this information prior to sale.

(d) Record keeping.

(1) A record for any animal purchased for resale shall be maintained for a period of one year, from the date of resale.

(2) The record shall contain at least:

(i) A description of the animal, including the breed, sex, color, and age of the animal;

(ii) The origin of purchase, including the supplier and the date of receipt;
and

(iii) Any medical records, including any required treatment program.

(e) Inspections.

The Department of Animal Control shall be permitted to inspect at anytime all animals and the premises where animals are kept.

9-304. Same – License suspension and revocation.

(a) Violation of law.

A commercial animal establishment/kennel license may be withheld or revoked if the person holding the license refuses or fails to comply with this title or any law governing the protection and keeping of animals.

(b) False information.

If the applicant has withheld or falsified any information on the application, the Department of Animal Control may refuse to issue or may revoke the license.

(c) Appeals.

Appeals from withheld or revoked licenses may be made to the Animal Control Commission within 15 days of the notice of such action.

(d) Stay of revocation; emergency situations.

(1) In the event of a timely appeal of revocation of a license, the revocation will not be effective until after the next scheduled meeting of the Commission.

(2) In the event of an emergency situation, an animal control officer may make application to the Chairperson of the Commission who is authorized to issue a temporary cease and desist order pending a hearing at the next meeting of the Commission.

(e) Previous conviction.

A person that has been found guilty of cruelty to animals may not be issued a license to operate a commercial animal establishment or commercial kennel/cattery.

(f) Subsequent application.

(1) Except as provided in subsection (e) above, any person who has been denied a license may reapply after a period of six months from said denial.

(2) Each reapplication shall be accompanied by a fee, in addition to the licensing fee, and written verification that the applicant complies with all zoning and use regulation.

9-305. Standards of care – In general.

It shall be the duty of every owner of an animal, or anyone having an animal in his or her possession or custody, to exercise reasonable care and to take all necessary steps and precautions to protect other people, property, and animals from injuries or damage that might result from their animal's behavior, regardless of whether such behavior is motivated by mischievousness, playfulness, ferocity, or any other motive.

9-306. Same – Minors.

(a) Parental responsibility

The parent or guardian of a minor who owns or keeps an animal shall be responsible for ensuring compliance with the provisions of this title and State law.

(b) Transfer to minor

An animal may not be sold or given to a minor without the written consent of the parent or guardian.

9-307. Same – Minimum standards.

The Director of the Department of Animal Control will develop and update a comprehensive set of regulations to be used for the enforcement of the following minimum standards. These regulations will be used by the Department of Animal Control to ensure the proper and uniform enforcement of these standards.

(a) *In general.

An owner or custodian of an animal may not fail to provide the animal with:

- (1) Sufficient, wholesome, and nutritious food;
- (2) Potable water in sufficient quantities;
- (3) Proper air, shelter, space, light, and protection from weather;
- (4) Veterinary care when needed to prevent suffering; and
- (5) Humane care and treatment.

(b) *Farm animals.

In the case of farm animals, nothing in this section may be construed as imposing standards more stringent than normally accepted husbandry practices.

(c) *Enclosure standards.

An animal enclosure must:

- (1) be structurally sound and maintained in good repair to protect the animal from the elements and to contain the animal;
- (2) provide sufficient space to allow each animal adequate freedom of movement;

(3) be cleaned to remove excretions and other waste materials, dirt, and trash in order to provide humanely clean conditions and to minimize health hazards and obnoxious odors;

(4) provide potable water that is always available and that is kept in a vessel secured to prevent tipping; and

(5) provide artificial lighting in sufficient quantities as determined by the needs of the species if the enclosure does not have natural lighting.

(d) Same – Indoor enclosures.

An indoor enclosure must provide adequate ventilation by natural or mechanical means and the ambient temperature shall be compatible with the health of the animal.

(e) Same – Outdoor enclosure.
